Library Happening

Wow, can you believe that it is Book Week next week and it follows on from an awesome Artists and Writers Festival. It was my 1st festival and I was so impressed with all the wonderful activities and guests to the school. Excited already for the STEM festival next year.

However, I want to talk about BOOK WEEK and what is happening here are TURNER. The theme for Book Week is 'Reading is my Secret Power'.

The events that are happening are:

Book Fair—Week 5 August 19th to 23rd

Monday to Friday: Morning 8.15am to 8.50am - Monday to Thursday : Afternoon 3pm to 3.45pm

Read-a-Aloud—Wednesday 21st whole school in the hall

Family Pancakes & Mystery Book Night: Wednesday 21st August 5pm to 6.30pm

Choose a mystery brown paper bag to read together, while you enjoy a pancake with a topping of choice

PJ Day—Friday 23rd

Students are invited to wear their PJ's to school for the day, we will be having a snuggle and read session with buddies at the end of the day. We are asking students to bring a GOLD COIN donation towards the Indigenous Literacy and Numeracy Foundation.

All the short-listed books will be on display in the library and classes will be making a Book Week bookmark to keep.

I will also be running some Book Week competitions for each cohort. It is an opt in activity, they will be explained to each class and then entry is a choice. They are:

Kindy: Design a Superhero mask

1/2: Design your own Bug

3/4: Create a one-page comic strip, with a hero and reading in it somewhere.

5/6: Favourite author poster

All entries will go on display in the library and there will be winners.

If re available to support Turner School during Book Week please contact the office on 61422430 and ask to be out through to myself.

Your support would be greatly appreciated. am looking forward to a great week.

Yours In Reading
