General Business

Fete update
Heather Kettle advised that all fete arrangements are well advanced and there were no specific issues or concerns. There are 20 confirmed stall coordinators with a new stall, Photo Booth. Heather to check if school logo is included in the photos. The next meeting of the fete Committee is scheduled for 1 July 2015.

Inappropriate behaviour in the playground
Damien Ellwood raised the issue of inappropriate behaviour in the playground, including instances of bullying. Jo Padgham advised that any matter of bullying or playground incidents of concern should be brought to the attention of executive members of the staff as well as the child’s teacher and that the school encourages parents to talk with both their child’s class teacher and executive staff about any aspect of their child’s learning or play at school.

Class Parent Contact update
Robyn Thurecht advised of:
- a very successful second visit to the National Gallery of Australia – 20 people participating;
- very successful Y3/4 Playground/Cubby party – a good range of parents participated;
- Y1/2 Cranky Bears have booked to attend a play with milkshakes afterwards; and
• A new parents night is being organised at the Loft (Duxtons).

Cookbook update

Greta Doherty advised that:

- we’ve had a great response from families in relation to the request for recipes. Recipe submission is now closed and we’ve now got almost 140. Families, including many Turner students, have really made an amazing effort to include interesting recipes with wonderful background stories, so it’s going to make a fabulous cookbook;

- we have sponsorship from the Physiotherapist at O’Connor, First National Real Estate at O’Connor and Gumnuts Dance;

- but sales have been less than hoped, which is unfortunate because it means that our profit margin will be smaller than anticipated we have sold 200 copies;

- while the final cost of the books is to be determined, we’d like to seek in-principle agreement to an amount of $750, with final approval via email once we have the final quote from the publishing company.

Moved Heather Kettle, seconded David Dunstan. Carried.

Language teaching after school

Jo Padgham advised that following a request from parents Helen and Percy Bell for Turner School to offer after school mandarin Language classes. Jo, Robyn Watson, Deputy Principal and Bob Edwards, Board Chairman met with the language school providers and agreed, subject to them meeting all the Turner School after school hire obligations, that a trial will be held for K-6 during Term Three. The language school provider is FCCCI Chinese School – a community based non-profit organisation run by volunteers.

Hygiene proposal – handwashing before eating

Following a query from parents re schools policy of handwashing before eating Jo Padgham advised that handwashing before meals was a Directorate policy and Turner school actively promotes the policy.

Other business
